

THE WOMEN'S GARDEN & THE ALCHEMY OF TASTE

Mechelen, Saturday October 25th 14:00

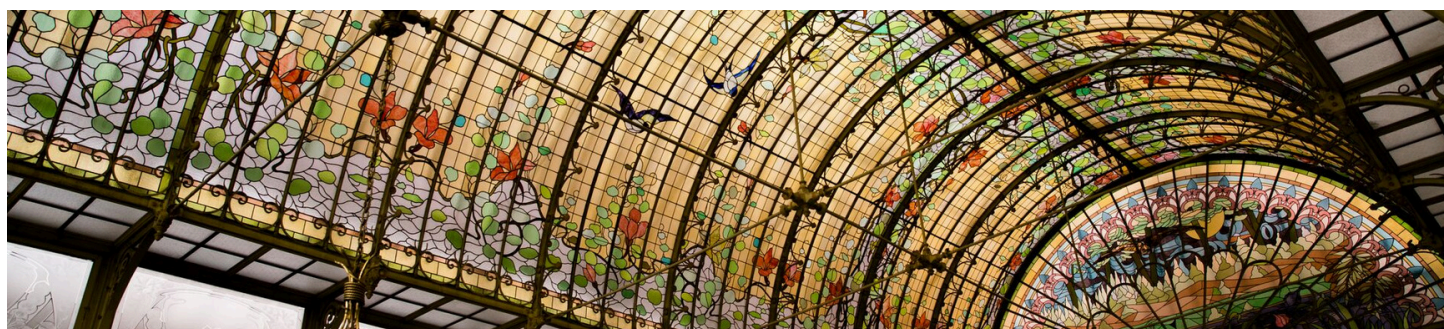

Leave your to-do list behind and join a small group of real women for a one-of-a-kind day escape.

We'll begin at Mechelen Central Station with a private, comfortable ride to a breathtaking hidden gem — the Winter Garden of the Ursulines — where art, history, and the quiet brilliance of visionary women come together in a dazzling Art Nouveau sanctuary.

After a private guided tour filled with wonder and meaning, we'll head to an indulgent beer and chocolate tasting led by a passionate sommelier who brings each pairing to life through stories, humor, and sensory delight.

This is for you if you're craving a change of scenery, a spark of wonder, and a little pampering - without the need to plan a thing.

Just show up, be present, and let yourself be carried by a day that feeds your soul, awakens your senses, and reminds you of how good it feels to take time for you.

→ You want a meaningful, soulful story — one that touches your heart and leaves you inspired.

You've been meaning to treat yourself for ages, but it never feels like the right time.

→ You want permission to indulge — in taste, in joy, in beauty — without guilt or second thoughts.

You miss feeling connected — to yourself and to other women who just get it.
